

This petition is totally without merit. Increasing the requirements for Morse code while the rest of the world is decreasing them makes no sense. Morse code should be completely eliminated as a license requirement.